Testimonials

"Wow, what an experience! The Chamber tour was all we could hope for. From the Great Wall and a Buddhist Temple celebration to the fastest commuter train in the world, the Chamber and the Chinese people gave us an incredible show," said Al Cotton, vp of communications for Nypro.

"What a wonderful experience. We all learned a lot and had a great time," explains Kim Proctor, business development executive for Unitil. "You really have to see it to understand what's going on there."

"The trip offered an amazing sampling of Chinese culture, both old & new. The personable guides not only provided unlimited detail about each site, but also shared their inside views of Chinese daily life," added Jim Walsh, senior engineer at DRS Power Technology.
